

More time needs to be taken for open and public debate on this issue. There should be no further deregulation of the broadcasting industry. There need to be limits on cross ownership. The airwaves belong to the people, not the corporations. Thank you for your time and consideration.